A NEWS

No6-7

INFORMATIVE BULLETIN BY "ANARCHIST INTERVENTION"

FROM GREECE APRIL-SEPTEMBER 1994

THE SOCIAL WAR TO BE CONTINUED

APRIL

4: A van of the insurance company "INTERAMERICAN" is set on fire at Helliniko (a suburb of Athens). The group "Brigades of chaotists" claims the responsibility.
6: The group "Wild geese of the cities" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car at Exarchia (Athens), owned by the company "Cosmos security".
6: The group "Rabid Anarchists" claims the responsibility for the attack to a Christian bookshop, in the center of Athens, with molotov bombs.
7: A pupils' march against the war takes place. The march ends out of the Polytechnic school where the cops have closed one gate from the two ones that exist. The demonstrators invade from the other gate, force the cops to remove from their post and set fires to the road, out of the Polytechnic school. Two hours later the demonstrators leave the building.
8: The tableaux of the political parties at the institutions of education, in Patra, are destroyed by molotov bombs.
17: The group "Anti-authoritarian Struggle" claims the responsibility for the arsons of a van, owned by the Bank of Crete at Abelokipous (Athens) and a van of a sound-system company at Exarchia.
20: The group "Red Devils" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car, at Vouliagmeni (a suburb of Athens), belonged to a Swede diplomat.
23: Two vans of the commercial enterprise "Sitram" are set on fire at Exarchia.
24: A van (Mercedes) of a luxurious flower shop is set on fire, in the center of Athens.
27: The workers of a textile-factory take the boss as a hostage, protesting for the no-payment of the Easter bonus.
29: An improvised bomb blows up in the judicial mansion of Amaliada (a city of south Greece) and causes serious damages.
30: A car (Mercedes) which belonged to the cathedral of Piraeus is set on fire at Brahami (a suburb of Athens).
30: A van of a commercial enterprise is set on fire at Brahami.

MAY

2: An improvised bomb, under a van of a mining company blows up at Maduthi (a village near Halkida).
4: The prisoner Sotiridis commits suicide in prisons of Korydallos.
4: The group "Rabid Revolt" claims the responsibility for the arson of a van at Exarchia, owned by a commercial enterprise.
5: The group "Free men under siege" claims the responsibility for the arson of a state car, at Ilioupoli (a suburb of Athens), owned by the Ministry of the Environment.
6: A group of young people invades a video club and destroys a lot of porno-video tapes. The "Anti-sexist Anarchist group" claims the responsibility.
8: Offices of the fascist group "Byzantine Greek Organization", in the center of Athens are destroyed by fire.
9: A cop's car is set on fire at Kalamaki (a suburb of Athens).
10: Molotov bombs are thrown against the offices of PASOK (the governing party) at Exarchia. Minor damages are caused.
12: An ineffectual attempt of burning the offices of ND (the right-wing party) takes place. The persons are observed and go away leaving behind a jerry can full of petrol.
12: The group "Cores of Revolutionary Violence" claims the responsibility for the arsons of a bus, owned by an industrial company and a bus of the Greek General Confederation of Labour. The same group claims the responsibility for the attacks of April the 31st and May the 9th.
12: The group "Anti-fascist Action" set fire on a part of the cinema "ILION" where a meeting of the fascist group "Gold Dawn" had taken place.
12: The group "Rabid Revolt" claims the responsibility for the arson of a van of a technical enterprise company at Imitos (a suburb of Athens).
12: The demonstration and the march of May the 1st takes place in the center of Athens. During the march the anarchists who bring up the rear of the march attack the cops with stones and other objects. A video camera of a television station is destroyed and the glass panelling of a bank is damaged.
13: The group "Rabid Revolt" claims the responsibility for the arson of a state car, in the center of Athens, owned by the Ministry of environment.
15: Molotov bombs are thrown against the offices of PASOK, in the center of Athens. The group "Vagian's guerillas" claims the responsibility and in their phone call they mention that this attack takes place because of the 9 years that have passed from the murder of the rebel Ch. Tsutsuvis.
15: The group "Rabid Revolt" claims the responsibility for the arsons of a luxurious car at Perissos (a suburb of Athens) and a van, owned by the insurance company "OMONIA" at Imitos.
16: MAT (riot police) attack the demonstration of 4000 countrymen in Ioanina (a city of North Greece).
18: The group "Revolutionary Action" claims the responsibility for the arson of a doctor's car in Thessaloniki. The doctor was demanding bribes from his patients.
19: A car of the television station "MEGA CHANNEL" is set on fire. The group "Anti-authoritarian Struggle" claims the responsibility.
20: The group "Free men under Siege" claims the responsibility for the arsons of a luxurious car which belonged to the owner of the super-market store "VASILOPOULOS" and a van of the super-market store "SKLAVENITIS" at Brahami.

22: Two molotov bombs are thrown against the german commercial enterprise "Mile" in the center of Athens. The group "The wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.

JUNE

2: A support-concert to the Turks deniers of the army, organized by anarchists, takes place at Exarchia square.

4: The group "Rabid Anarchists" claims the responsibility for the attack against the Tax Office, at Exarchia, with two molotov bombs.

6: The group "Anti-authoritarian Struggle" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car, owned by the Ministry of Agriculture in the center of Athens. In their phone call to a newspaper, they mention: "The only think that all the masters offer is fraud and a quick or a slow death. The promises for the better days concerns only themselves. Lets show them that we can't stand them any longer."

6: There is a demonstration in the Polytechnic School of Athens, organized by anarchists and anti-authoritarians. The reason is the arrival of the French bastard Lepen. A T.V. camera of the TV station SKY is crashed and so is a small distribution track of the newspaper "EXPRESS" and another one of the Athens newspapers' distribution agency.

After a few hour, the demonstrators build barricades across Patission st. and clash with the repression forces, using stones, molotov bombs and fireworks.

At this moment the state activates one of its mechanisms, the "angry citizens", composed by members of PASOK (the socialist party, which is also the governing party) and fascists, who, in perfect collaboration with the cops, throw stones against the demonstrators.

The clashes end at about 11.00pm and the demonstrators leave the place, without any arrest.

10: The group "Anti-authoritarian Struggle" claims the responsibility for the explosion of an improvised bomb in a school bus at Kypseli, owned by a private school. In their phone call to a newspaper they mention that this action takes place against the pupils' extermination in school-prisons.

11: One improvised bomb blows up at the entrance of a small industry in the center of Athens and another one blows up in a van of the technical company "TEEM" behind the hotel "HILTON".

11: The offices of the political party "Political Spring" at Imitto are attacked with molotov bombs. Electoral material is destroyed from the fire.

11: Unknown persons invade a school which has been used as a polling station and set fire on the bag with the ballot papers.

In June the 19th persons attack the cop who guards the central offices of KKE (the communist party) at Perrissos (a suburb of Athens) and rob him from gun. Two days later the anarchist O.Kabouris is arrested and charged with this attack.

26: The anarchist group "M.Kaltezas" claims the responsibility for the arson of a state car at Terpsithea.

28: A van of the company "Calpak" is set on fire at Vouliagmeni Avenue.

28: A luxurious car owned by a building contactor is set on fire at Halandri (a suburb of Athens).

28: Unknown people throw a molotov bomb to the entrance of the court-buildings at Ghizi (Athens). They are pursued but they manage to escape.

28: A van of the super-market store "VASILOPOULOS" is set on fire at Brahami.

30: V.Mihou goes on hunger strike, demanding her release after 18 months in custody.

JULY

1: A journalist's car is set on fire at Exarchia.

1: A support-march to O.Kabouris takes place in the center of Athens.

Kabouris is on hunger strike since 21st of June.

2: A concert against nationalism organized by anarchists, takes place at the central square of Ilioupoli.

2: G.Balafas goes on hunger strike in support to V.Mihou.

3: About 600 detainees in prisons of Larisa start total abstinence from their mess asking for better living conditions.

5: The prisoner Ignatithis attacks and punches the governor of the prisons of Larisa when the last one announces the positions of the government on the prisoners' demands.

7: The detainees of the prisons of Korydallos (a suburb of Athens) start abstinence from their mess, protesting for the living conditions.

11: The prisoner Konstadinithis commites suicide in his cell in prisons of Korydallos.

12: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the attack against the annex of the Ministry of civilization with molotov bombs at Exarchia.

18: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the arson of a luxurious car at Exarchia.

21: A solidarity-march to the hunger striker O.Kabouris, towards the prisons of Korydallos takes place.

21: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the explosion of an improvised explosive device in a van, owned by a sound system company.

23: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car (Mercedes) at Exarchia.

24: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the arson of a van, owned by an institute of foreign languages.

25: G.Balafas is acquitted from the charges of the execution of the public prosecutor

Theofanopoulos and the robbery of the super-market store "SKLAVENITIS" at Galatsi (a suburb of Athens)
26: The group "15 of May" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car at Ghizi owned by a company that sets alarm systems.
26: V.Mihou is released after a hunger strike of 27 days.
27: The group "Rabid Revolt" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car at Galatsi, owned by a cine-company.
28: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the attacks with molotov bombs against a bookshop and a luxurious car (Mercedes) at Exarchia.
28: The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility for the attacks with molotov bombs against a private educational establishment and a gallery at Exarchia.

AUGUST

1: A luxurious car (Mercedes) is set on fire at Exarchia. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.
2: A support-march to O.Kabouris takes place in the center of Athens. The march is organized by the "Anarchists' Initiative".
2: Persons attack and set a store of a commercial company and a luxurious jeep on fire at Exarchia.
3: A van owned by a film director is set on fire. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.
5: The offices of the political party "Political Spring" at Imitto (a suburb of Athens) are set on fire.
8: Three vans of a publishing company are set on fire at Peristeri (a suburb of Athens).
14: Three vans of a cine-company are set on fire at Nea Liosia (a suburb of Athens).
16: A state car, owned by the Ministry of the Environment is set on fire at N.Kosmos (a suburb of Athens). The "Anarchist group: M.Kaltezas" claims the responsibility.
17: An occupation of the building of the economic University (Athens) takes place in support to the hunger strikers G.Balafas and O.Kabouris.
In the evening the cops invade the building and arrest 52 persons.
17: Three offices of PASOK (the governing party) at A.Anargiri, at Peristeri and Egaleo (suburbs of Athens) are set on fire. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.
18: 51 persons of the 52 arrested ones for the occupation of the economic university are judged guilty. They lodge an appeal and are set free.
18: Molotov bombs are thrown against the Tax Office and a firm of writing materials at Exarchia. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.
23: A support-march to O.Kabouris, organized by the "Anarchists' Initiative" takes place in the center of Athens.

27: A molotov bomb is thrown against a cafeteria at Exarchia.
27: A car owned by an ex member of the Parliament is set on fire in Argos (a city of South Greece). The member has been mixed up in release of persons who traffic in drugs.
28: Three offices of PASOK at Mets, at Egaleo and Nikea are set on fire.
29: About 30 persons attack with molotov bombs the National Bank, a cafeteria, luxurious cars and two commercial stores at Exarchia. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility and in their phone call they mention that the attacks took place because of the dismissal of Kabouris' petition for release.
31: A luxurious car is set on fire at Exarchia. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.

SEPTEMBER

1: Balafas' petition for release is become acceptable from the council of judges because of the serious health problems after the hunger strike of 59 days.
1: A support-march to O.Kabouris organized by the "Anarchists' Initiative" takes place in the center of Athens.
1: Persons attack with molotov bombs and stones a branch of the Greek post-office, an Agrarian Bank and an Ionian Bank. These attacks take place out of a sport-field in Athens during and after the end of a support-concert to G.Balafas. The "Anarchist hit teams" claims the responsibility.
2: A state car, owned by the Ministry of the environment is set on fire at Dafni (a suburb of Athens). The group "Cores of revolutionary Violence" claims the responsibility and demands Kabouris' release.
2: The National Bank at Peristeri is attacked with molotov bombs.
3: The group "Anarchist Struggle" takes the responsibility for the arson of the Bank of Macedonia and Thraki with molotov bombs in the center of Thessaloniki (a city of North Greece).
3: The central offices of PASOK in the center of Athens are attacked with molotov bombs. Damages are not caused. The "Anarchist hit teams" claims the responsibility and demands Kabouris' release.
3: A National Bank in the center of Athens is attacked with molotov bombs.
3: The National bank and a cafeteria at Exarchia are attacked with molotov bombs.
3: A General Bank at Exarchia is attacked with molotov bombs.
4: A car of a commercial company is set on fire at Exarchia. The group "The Wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.
4: The offices of PASOK at Amfiali, at Galatsi, at Dafni and Halandri (suburbs of Athens), are attacked with molotov bombs.
5: A support-meeting takes place out of the hospital where

O.Kabouris is under treatment because of the hunger strike.

7: A coach is set on fire at Halandri with molotov bombs.

8: The group "Anarchist Cores of Solidarity" claims the responsibility for the arson of a van at Ilioupoli, owned by an industrial company. In their phone call they ask Kabouris' release.

10: Persons attack the annex of the Ministry of civilization at Exarchia with molotov bombs.

11: The group "Free men in a state of siege" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car at N.Kosmos (a suburb of Athens), owned by a firm which manufactures furniture.

12: The group "Mass Escape" claims the responsibility for the arson of 6 cars of the Civil Service of Electricity.

2: The group "Anarchist Cores of Solidarity" claims the responsibility for the arson of a cop's car at Dafni.

12: The group "The Sleepless Revolutionary Conscience" claims the responsibility for the arson of a car owned by the Greek Tourist Organization. In their phone call they mention "You 'll hear from us again before the municipal elections."

14: A van, owned by an Athenian news agency is set on fire in Athens.

17: After the end of a concert at Likavittos (Athens) a group of persons attack a fire tender with molotov bombs. The group "The wolves of Exarchia" claims the responsibility.

18: The group "Anti-authoritarian Struggle" claims the responsibility for the explosion of an improvised device, placed at the gate of the Academy of Athens.

20: A van of the air-company "Virgin" is set on fire at Helliniko.

20: A cop's car is set on fire at A.Anargiri (a suburb of Athens).

24: A christian bookshop at Exarchia is attacked with molotov bombs.

26: Persons set a wooden gate of the economic university (Athens) on fire.

28: A van, owned by a commercial company is set on fire at Ilioupoli.

29: A support-concert to O.Kabouris takes place in Patra.

29: A car, owned by a church is set on fire at Ilioupoli.

30: Before and during a concert at Likavittos, a group of persons attack the henchmen and a car of the security company. They also destroy the box-office and take the money.

NEWSPAPER
ANARCHIST INTERVENTION
P.O.BOX 30557
10033 ATHENS, GREECE